Damn Good Food in the heart of Minneapolis

Three different areas—each with a completely unique personality—offer a myriad of choices for meetings & celebrations.

Minnesota Room

For 6–135 guests seated*
225 reception-style event

We can't wait for your guests to experience our unique and unusual homage to Minnesota that shows off our states wonders, richness, playfulness and curiosities to the rest of the world.

Designed and built by Minnesotans, this elegant room has quirky photographs that enthrall guests, explanations of our state's unusual colloquialisms (Uffda! Skol!), and even the name of all 804 cities, townships, and villages in our state.

Adjustable handcrafted glass partitions can configure the room for groups of almost any size. For example, the fireplace area can turn into an intimate space for a groom's dinner, or the panels and curtains can slide to provide just the right space for a larger group (lower photo).

Three semi private sections are also available:
Two of them seat up to 45 guests, and the third seats up to 32 guests.

Classic as well as creative food options include everything from casual fare to custom chef-driven meals.

MinnesotaMADE spirits & brews show off the North region's craft distilleries in addition to our full range of wines, beers, and cocktails.

Cheeky "Up North" photo-op corner compels even buttoned-up execs to relax with their crew.

"Game changer! Inches away from committing to a boring banquet room elsewhere, we discovered our group could take over your entire underground lair." PK, Bloomington

Farside Pub

For 10-50 guests seated;
75 reception-style event

MinnesotaMADE Brews & Spirits are the stars of this intimate pub with full bar and food service. Some groups choose to start in the Pub with appetizers and cocktails, then spill into the adjacent Minnesota Room for lunch or dinner. Others host their entire party within the Pub featuring a horseshoe bar, comfortable booths, a buffet area, and hilarious hell-themed illustrations by Gary Larson that keep guests engaged as they circulate through the room.

Corporate Cocktail Hours are especially popular in this "own your own pub" area that also has a flatscreen TV for video montages, sports, or PowerPoint presentations.

"FUNKY, FUN, GREAT FOOD"

And more importantly, your highly organized team made planning the celebration so much easier. ~M.B., Austin

"GREAT EXPERIENCE... SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE"

Such a fun experience for my peers. Casual environment, music in the background, perfect. ~Walsh K., Carlsbad, CA

"YOU MADE ME A HERO!"

The office is still buzzing about our little gathering in Hell. The food was as good as always, but the fact that your staff seem to genuinely enjoy their jobs and seem proud of the place they work also helped the experience tremendously. Our staff is fairly new and diverse, so I somewhat fretted about needing an ice-breaker, but all the details in your Minnesota Room had them curious and active and engaged. Huge thanks again.

~Lou Webber, Minneapolis

"JUST WANT TO SAY THANK YOU FOR HOSTING 30 CRAZY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND FOUR (PEACEFUL) TEACHERS TODAY"

Our server was calm and fantastic, she catered to our every need (her name escapes me as my students occupied most of her time...because believe me they can be needy!!!) You provided an experience they will never forget."

~Laura F

New Richmond, WI High School

"I DREAM ABOUT THIS PLACE"

If there's one main reason to go back to Minneapolis, it would be to visit Hell's Kitchen again....now I need another excuse to throw a Meet & Greet.

~Robert P, Vancouver

"OUR MEETING PLANNERS ARE STILL TALKING ABOUT THE WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE THEY HAD AT HELL'S KITCHEN."

~Betty W, CMP, National Account Executive, Minneapolis.org

"THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR ERASING ALL OF MY WORRIES AND TAKING CARE OF EVERYTHING."

We sincerely appreciate everything that you did for us last Sunday! I will be recommending Hell's Kitchen to anyone who will listen J. I'm also talking to my bosses right now about hosting our holiday party with you.

~Madeline Odegard, St. Paul

"ECLECTIC, FUNKY and DELICIOUS"

The servers for our group were very friendly and helpful. The chef, according to the menu, is a mad-man when it comes to cuisine, and the food combinations were deliciously mad, including the to-die-for cupcakes. Glad our firm walked on the wild side!

~Joe R, Connecticut

"Minnesota's Ambassador" ~ City Pages, MN Business Journal

Knowing you have many choices, here's why we sincerely hope you'll show us off to your guests:

No other venue celebrates and shows off the food, brews, and locally-distilled spirits of Minnesota like we do.

Make sure to peek into The Minnesota Room which also celebrates the wonders, curiosities, culture, and quirky humor of our state as well as the entire North region.

Hell's Kitchen is locally owned and fiercely independent.

We're not a chain, so what you spend here stays here. (PS...we were around for years before the TV show of the same name.)

We're also ferociously supportive of local sourcing and sustainability. Way before these terms made headlines, we were marching to our own drum.

Our award-winning food appeals to a wide variety of people, from foodies to families. Rather than follow trends, we just cook damn good food...unique but not fancy; interesting but not fussy. And yes, of course we have plenty of gluten-free and vegetarian options.

We offer customizable menus from casual to high end.

High speed internet access plus phone charging USB ports can be found throughout our Minnesota Room.

No room rental fees; reasonable food and beverage minimums.

Our full time professional Banquet & Event Manager thrives on taking the hassles out of your planning workload.

No additional "decor elements" needed...guests are already enthralled with our look as well as our art from award-winning, internationally acclaimed artists such as Ralph Steadman.

We take great care of our staff so they, in turn, take great care of you ...and we especially love hearing back that our staff was friendly, polished, and --just as importantly-- truly seem to love their jobs.

We're in the heart of downtown Minneapolis, walking distance to US Bank Stadium, hotels, the Convention Center, most downtown hotels, and all other major sports/entertainment/theatre venues. Concerned about the weather? We're accessible via the entire downtown skyway system and have an adjacent parking ramp so guests never have to go outside.

Lastly, don't worry about our name, which is an homage to cooks all over the world hovering over hot stoves morning, noon and night. Families, kids, grandmas...even church choirs who come after Sunday services grin at our gentle wink to all things Hell.
