Glen Eyrie Castle and Conference Center

The former home of Colorado Springs founder General Palmer, now owned by The Navigators, Glen Eyrie Castle and Conference Center is a one of kind venue for guests of all kinds.

Host your next event at Glen Eyrie and invite your guests to focus on what matters most.

Location: Situated in the serene and secluded Queen's Canyon, guests feel miles away though are actually just minutes from the world-renowned Garden of the Gods, historic downtown Colorado Springs, and shopping in Old Colorado City. The Colorado Springs Municipal Airport is only 30 minutes away and Denver is an easy, one-hour drive north.

Venue Highlights:

Meeting Spaces: With over 17,700 square feet of meeting space, Glen Eyrie can accommodate your meeting needs across the property. Host your event in the historic Castle or in a meeting space where your lodging is also located.

Property Services: As a full-service conference venue, our experienced team will support you every step of the way. Plan with the help of an expert Event Planner, and execute a great event with professional technical and audio/visual services, delicious meals prepared by our Culinary Team, and conference services assistance with room setup.

On-Site Overnight Lodging: Host your guests overnight in one of our 95 guest rooms across the property, ranging from unique and historic rooms in The Castle, Pink House, and Eagles Nest Lodge to more traditional hotel rooms in our four other lodges.

Amenities and Activities: Our breathtaking property offers something for everyone! Conference guests have access to onsite, private hiking trails, fire pits, sports equipment, board games, and team-building activities as well as partnerships with local attractions for adventures in and around Colorado Springs. Glen Eyrie also hosts daily Teas and Tours for guests to enjoy (some amenities require additional fees).

About Glen Eyrie Castle and Conference Center

Who We Are

As a ministry of The Navigators, The Glen Eyrie Group is comprised of Glen Eyrie and Eagle Lake Camps. Built upon the unique intersection of natural, historical, and spiritual heritages, the Glen Eyrie Group promises to stay true to our Navigator calling by purposefully and thoughtfully ministering to guests through Christ-centered service, excellence, and innovative programming.

Our Mission:

Glen Eyrie invites our guests to focus on what really matters by creating meaningful experiences through God honoring hospitality.

Our History:

Built in 1871, Glen Eyrie is the former home of Colorado Springs founder General William Jackson Palmer. The Castle is a 67-room English Tudor-style castle, his dream home nestled next door to Garden of the Gods in Colorado Springs.

In 1952, The Navigators purchased the Glen Eyrie property as the home and headquarters of the Navigators ministry. Today, Glen Eyrie Castle offers guests the most unique, immersive historical experience in Colorado Springs, filled with a rich spiritual and historical legacy.

Guests can spend the night in the historic castle, built for General Palmer's wife Queen, the historic Pink House or our more recently renovated lodges. Glen Eyrie is a unique property secluded in Queen's Canyon and is frequented by a variety of Colorado wildlife.
